Class Will of '41

- I, Mabel Alexander, leave my dimpled cheeks to Fannie Ambrosino.
- I, Sam Benn, leave the teachers in peace-----at last.
- I, Clara Blumen, leave for Whittier-----not the Reformatory.
- I, Donald Boltzen, leave the "aud." without a wandering ghost.
- I, Wallace Brewer, leave taking my 1902 chariot and leaving room for 3 more cars.
- I, Tom Broderick, leave with Joe Rodrigues.
- I, Ida Bucholtz, leave the piano bench empty.
- I, Bill Bunn, leave the school minus a great athlete and a great lover.
- I, Bruno Cardona, leave my manly physique to my brother Johnnie.
- I, Henry Cervantes, leave Eddie to wander the halls alone.
- I, Evo Coelho, leave the ear drums of the student body in peace.
- I, Carl Crowell, leave my perfect finger wave to James Lewis.
- I, Pete Del Pozo, leave "Coach" to find a better half-back.
- I, Anna Mae Diffin, leave the store, the annual, and a few other things to-----any sucker.
- I, Norman Fertado, leave my way with the girls to Doyle Davis.
- I, Lorene Flannery, leave my chicken hop to Mary Beth Mooers.
- I, Lucille Garcia, leave my giggles to Jura Hoffman.
- I, Don Gentry, leave Mary Agnes alone-----or do I?
- I, John Giannini, leave my half by herself.
- I, Arnold Griggs, leave at last.
- I, Wesley Griggs, leave the girls to be tormented by Don Morgan.
- I, June Hanson, leave the teachers to do their own chores.
- I, Leora Heiser, leave to get married.
- I, Horace Hill, leave with my L. U. H. S. delivery truck.
- I, Eunice Hirakawa, leave the school without a knitter.
- I, Byron Holland, leave to follow Leona.
- I, Art Honegger, leave my contradictory nature for Myra and Dave to carry on.
- I, Ed Hudson, leave the F. F. A. to struggle on alone.
- I, Lorraine Johnson, leave sooner than expected.
- I, Tom Koga, leave in search of a can of striped paint.
- I, Florence Komonsky, leave stealthily with a handful of absence slips.
- I, Lonnie La Haie, leave my bottle of henna rinse to Patsy Shanahan.
- I, Amelia Lopez, leave right in front of Rita.
- I, Rita Lucchesi, leave my luxurious hair to Mr. Nash.
- I, John Mackenzie, leave my moth-filled purse to George Geddes.
- I, Patsy Miller, leave without Catherine.
- I, Peggy Morgan, leave to join the housewives' league.
- I, Marion Nash, leave the school with only one Nash.
- I, Walter Nicol, leave Maxine in peace,--or is it pieces?
- I, Bette Niederwimmer, leave to join the June ranks of biscuit bakers.
- I, Maino Okazaki, leave my basketball ability to Keith Erwin.
- I, Lisette O'Meara, leave my big brown eyes to-----or should I?
- I, Floyd Pederson, leave my timid soul to Ralph DeMont.
- I, Alpha Powell, leave without the telephone--Thank Goodness!
- I, Pearl Reeves, leave the sales talk to Jerry Crocco.
- I, Minerva Richardson, leave with my shadow Sis Riggs.
- I, Rosita Rios, leave the sewing room alone.
- I, Carmen Rodrigues, leave still undecided.
- I, Joe Rodrigues, leave to join the young farmers.
- I, Bill Root, leave the manual labors to "Pop" and "Jake."
- I, Howard Silva, leave to run J. P. Morgan out of business.
- I, Helen Sorgenfrey, leave basketball without a Sorgenfrey.
- I, Mabel Teixeira, leave the office slips to accumulate by themselves.
- I, John Vierra, leave the other half by herself.
- I, Dean Wells, leave Mr. Vonder Ahe to sack up the suits alone.
- I, Leona Wightman, leave for Byron.
- I, George Wolf, leave dragging my line with me.
- I, Howard Wood, leave blustering as usual
- I, Suzy Yagi, leave Mr. Callaghan with all his transcripts.
- I, Ilus Yeaman, leave with the rest of the boys.
